Summary

The Agricultural Service Board sponsors an annual school poster contest each spring. In honour of Canada's 150th birthday, the theme of the contest this year was "150 Years to Love Canadian Agriculture; Draw a picture celebrating our agricultural history". All schools within the Elk Island Public and Catholic school divisions received an invitation to participate in February of 2017. Grades 3, 4 and 5 are included in the competition. In total, 443 posters were submitted from 27 schools. Students with winning posters are to be presented with a cheque.
