Summary

Ed Riediger retired from his role as CEO of the Robin Hood Association in June 2017 after 43 years of service. Today, the organization supports more than 700 children and adults, employs over 500 staff members, and operates close to 60 residential homes and four major facilities, along with a learning centre and six other homes in Fort Saskatchewan.

The growth and development of this charity has been instrumental in creating a support network and opportunities throughout Strathcona County for people with disabilities.
