

Strathcona County Museum and Archives Functional Plan Update

History

- Strathcona County Heritage Foundation has been operating the Strathcona County Museum and Archives since 1997
- In 2018, Strathcona County conducted a review of the services provided by the Museum and Archives
- October 23, 2018 – Museum and Archives review report was received as information
- December 2018 – funding for a functional plan and feasibility study was approved through the 2019 budget process

Status Update

- Prairie Wild Consulting has been contracted to complete a Functional Plan
- Research into museum and archives requirements is in progress
- Late March 2020 – Consultants will be meeting with the stakeholders to investigate requirements in detail.

Next Steps

- Continued research as detailed requirements are assessed and evaluated for our community
- Explore funding and partnership possibilities
- Develop functional plan
- Present the functional plan report to Council in the 3rd quarter of 2020
- If approved, proceed to Feasibility Study
