Report

On November 7, 2017, Council gave three readings to Bylaw 34-2017 Boards and Committee Honorarium Bylaw which established the remuneration to be paid to public members serving on the County's Council Committees. The bylaw ensured that the County's rates or honoraria were aligned with regional practices and ensured consistency across all Council boards and committees.

The original Schedule "A" to Bylaw 34-2017 listed the Council Committees in existence at the time; however, since the bylaw was first passed, Council has retired several committees and has also established new committees and task forces. Therefore, Administration is recommending that Schedule "A" be replaced to adopt general terminology to address the periodic changes in council committees and provide the flexibility to ensure that the Schedule will address new committees and avoid amendments to the bylaw when committees have fulfilled their mandates and reach retirement.

Council and Committee History

November 7, 2017 Council gave three readings to Bylaw 34-2017 prescribing honoraria payable to public members of Council Committees.

December 8, 1998 Council approved remuneration to be paid to public members of Council boards and committees.
