Our Prioritized Strategic Goals

Goal 7 - Provide opportunities for public engagement and communication

Report

The road right-of-way is part of the developed roadway within the South Cooking Lake area.

The applicant is intending to construct a new residential dwelling and has approached the County to consider closing the portion of road allowance that is not currently developed in order to facilitate the development.

The undeveloped portion of the road allowance is not required and can be closed and consolidated into the adjacent lot.
