

Environmental Scan

Surveys

Public Engagement

Services Review

Public Engagement

Education

Compared to other counties, high school completion rates are higher in Strathcona County

Income

Compared to other counties, individual and household incomes are higher in Strathcona County

Employment

Compared to other counties, Strathcona County had a lower unemployment rate, overall

What contributes in making Strathcona County so unique is the existing Social Framework approach utilized to increase collaboration across between and stakeholders. There is a positive working relationship between the County and its partners, and all are dedicated to filling programmatic gaps in collaborative, innovative and efficient ways.

Those surveyed agreed that mental health and affordability were areas of concern

Agencies, parents and Y/YA noted a need for "gently supervised" gathering spaces

Revealed many programs and services already exist in Strathcona County Noted a need for increasing awareness about existing programs and services through social media

Mental Health

Transportation

Collaboration

Recommendations

Communication & Engagement

Gathering Spaces