Councillor Glen Lawrence;

Glen as you know we have a bulletin board hanging in the store in Cooking Lake.

It is now around 30 years and has seen better days. The owners of the store are cleaning everything up and getting the place looking really good. They are also cleaning up the old garage and would like a bulletin board in there as well.

These are Community League boards. We are also looking at some white boards for daily changes and upcoming events.

The total cost of what we are looking at would be $1138.8 plus shipping.

Would you please consider covering the cost of these for us.

Thank you,

Aila Beck-Merritt

Director - South Cooking Lake Community League
