

BYLAW 23-2021

RESPONSIBLE LIVESTOCK OWNERSHIP BYLAW

Section 7 of the Municipal Government Act permits Council to pass bylaws for municipal purposes in relation to the safety, health and welfare of people and the protection of people and property, and to create offences and impose fines and penalties; and

Section 7(h) of the Municipal Government Act permits Council to pass bylaws for municipal purposes in relation to wild and domestic animals and activities in relation to them; and

Section 8 of the Municipal Government Act permits Council to regulate or prohibit particular activities, industries, businesses, or other things, and to provide for a system of licences, permits and approvals; and

Section 3(c) of the Municipal Government Act states that the development and maintenance of safe and viable communities is one of the purposes of a municipality; and

Section 542 of the Municipal Government Act allows a designated officer of a municipality to enter land, buildings, and structures in order to carry out an inspection, enforcement, or action authorized or required by a bylaw; and

Strathcona County is a specialized municipality, which includes both rural and urban elements, and as such, different standards are required in respect of livestock in the rural areas, urban area, and mixed rural-urban areas;

Therefore Council enacts:

Wild Boar Restrictions

40 A person who is not keeping wild boar at the time this bylaw comes into effect is not permitted to keep wild boar.

41 A person who is keeping of wild boar at the time this bylaw comes into effect may continue to keep wild boar. If that person ceases to keep wild boar, that person may not subsequently keep wild boar again.

42 A person is not permitted to keep wild boar on a parcel of land other than the parcel of land the person keeps wild boar on at the time this bylaw comes into effect.

43 Each wild boar is equivalent to 12 LUs.

PART VIII – OFFENCES

Specific Offences

44 It is an offence to:

(a) contravene the conditions placed on any permit;

(b) allow for the accumulation of animal waste, or material contaminated by animal waste;

(c) allow for manure waste to enter neighbouring properties;

(d) allow livestock to constitute a nuisance;

- (e) release livestock from a secure enclosure, without the consent of the owner of the livestock;
 - (f) permit livestock to be in distress;
 - (g) fail to remove defecation left by livestock at a location other than the livestock owner's property, or a property where the livestock owner has permission to leave the defecation.
- 45 An owner of livestock that causes damage to public or private property is guilty of an offence.

PART IX – ENFORCEMENT

Offences	46 A person who fails to comply with a provision of this bylaw is guilty of an offence.
Continuing Offences	47 If an offence is of a continuing nature, each day or part thereof that a person fails to comply with the requirements of this bylaw constitutes a new offence.
Obstruction	48 Any person who interferes with or obstructs a bylaw enforcement officer in the execution of the bylaw enforcement officer's duties under this bylaw is guilty of an offence.
Onus	49 The onus of proving a person has a valid and subsisting permit is on the person alleging the permit's existence.
False Information	50 Any person who provides false information to a bylaw enforcement officer is guilty of an offence.
	51 A person who provides false information on a permit application is guilty of an offence.
Enforcement Measures	52 Nothing in this bylaw precludes a bylaw enforcement officer from taking any enforcement measure available in another bylaw or enactment, in addition to issuing a municipal tag or violation ticket for an offence.
	53 A bylaw enforcement officer is a designated officer of the municipality with the power to conduct inspections, take enforcement action, and order any person to remedy a contravention pursuant to the Municipal Government Act, or as provided for and in accordance with any other enactment or bylaw.
Livestock Officer	54 The Chief Commissioner may appoint one or more individuals as livestock officers.

- 55 A livestock officer is a designated officer of the County and is authorized to:
- (a) enter onto land or in to or on to a building or structure to conduct inspections to determine compliance with this bylaw; and
 - (b) take pictures or images of, or request copies of, anything from, in, or on a property, premises, or building that is reasonably pertinent to a matter under investigation.
- Municipal Tag
- 56 A bylaw enforcement officer may issue and serve a municipal tag on any person the officer has reasonable and probable grounds to believe has contravened a provision of this bylaw by:
- (a) personally serving the municipal tag on the person; or
 - (b) mailing a copy of the municipal tag by pre-paid post to the address provided by a person on a permit application, or a person's last known postal address.
- 57 A municipal tag shall be in a form approved by the Chief Commissioner and shall state:
- (a) the name of the person to whom the municipal tag is issued;
 - (b) the particulars of the contravention of the bylaw;
 - (c) the specified penalty for the offence as set out in Schedule A;
 - (d) that the specified penalty shall be paid within thirty (30) days of the issuance of the municipal tag in order to avoid prosecution; and
 - (e) any other information as may be required by the Chief Commissioner.
- Violation Ticket
- 58 If a municipal tag has been issued and the specified penalty on the municipal tag has not been paid within the prescribed time, a peace officer may issue a violation ticket to the person to whom the municipal tag was issued.
- 59 A peace officer may, in the officer's sole discretion, elect to issue and serve a violation ticket without first issuing a municipal tag.
- 60 A peace officer is authorized to issue a violation ticket, to any person the peace officer believes, on reasonable and probable grounds, has committed an offence under this bylaw, under Part 2 or Part 3 of the Provincial Offences Procedure Act.
- 61 If a violation ticket is issued it must be in the prescribed form and must:
- (a) state the specified penalty for the offence as set out in Schedule A of this bylaw; or

- (b) require the person to appear in Provincial Court with or without the alternative of making a voluntary payment.

Penalties

- 62 Any person guilty of an offence under this bylaw is liable on summary conviction to a penalty in an amount not less than the amount specified in Schedule A of this bylaw, or if not prescribed in Schedule A, not more than $10,000, and any other penalties as may be prescribed in default of payment in relation to proceedings taken under Part 2 or Part 3 of the Provincial Offences Procedure Act.

PART X – DECISIONS AND APPEALS

Decisions

- 63 The following matters are within the Chief Commissioner’s discretion, subject to any appeal or review provided for in this bylaw or to a court:
 - (a) Prescribing the application, renewal, variation, notification, and other forms required for this bylaw;
 - (b) Determining and imposing conditions and restrictions on a permit; and
 - (c) Amending or revoking a permit;
- 64 Decisions made by the Chief Commissioner in the exercise of the Chief Commissioner’s discretion under this bylaw to issue a permit, and the conditions and restriction on the permit, shall be in writing and delivered:
 - (a) by personal service to the permit applicant;
 - (b) electronically, in the permit application can be made electronically; or
 - (c) by ordinary mail to the permit applicant at the residential address provided in the permit application.

Appeals

- 65 An appeal to the County’s General Appeals and Review Committee lies from the Chief Commissioner’s decisions on the following matters:
 - (a) to deny a permit application or renewal;
 - (b) to vary or revoke a permit; or
 - (c) to impose conditions or restrictions on a permit.
- 66 A person must deliver notice in writing to the Chief Commissioner of an appeal not later than seven (7) days after the date on which the person was served notice of the Chief Commissioner’s decision.

- 67 The Chief Commissioner will, not later than seven (7) days after notice of an appeal was delivered to the Chief Commissioner, deliver to the General Appeals and Review Committee the records and information upon which the decision under appeal was based.
- 68 Following the conclusion of any hearing, the General Appeals and Review Committee must either confirm, reverse, or vary the decision of the Chief Commissioner.
- 69 The decision of the General Appeals and Review Committee is final, subject to judicial review by the Courts.

PART XI - GENERAL
