

Strathcona County Community Trends

Set in the centre of Alberta's energy and agricultural heartland, Strathcona County is a vibrant specialized municipality – a perfect blend of urban and rural living. Strathcona County is made up of over 1,200 square kilometers that include hamlets, acreages, urban neighbourhoods and rural and industrial lands.

Community Profile

Population Profile

Seniors

Programs and services youth and young adults access most:

Youth and Young Adults

Community Vitality, Belonging, and Safety

89.8%

of residents agree that Strathcona County is a safe place to live or visit.

Crime rate

in urban Strathcona County, almost 40% less than Alberta crime rate.

Alberta crime rate (9,962)

Urban Strathcona County crime rate (6,096)

(per 100,000 population, 2019)

7/10

residents feel there is currently a strong sense of belonging and connection in the community.

Economic Well-Being and Living Standards

72%

labour force participation rate close to the provincial average.

Strathcona County Average

Alberta Provincial Average

Cost to own a home is higher compared to the rest of the province.

14%

of residents are spending

30%

or more of their income on housing costs.

Median Household Income:

$133,786

Relative to the Alberta median of $102,493.

Health and Wellness

Average Life Expectancy

Residents have good overall health as reflected by a relatively high average life expectancy.

Mental Health

35% increase in participants accessing Solutions Navigation Services (between 2019-2020).

125 families (149 adults and 224 children) served through 1:1 parenting support in Family Resource Network 2020/21 reporting year.

Smoking Is Decreasing

18.5%

(2016)

15.1%

(2017)

Residents Are Increasingly Active

20.4%

(2013 - 2017)

STRATHCONA
COUNTY