Report

The developer of Hearthstone at Cambrian Stage 1 is proposing to name the lane north of Helen Lavender Park within Stage 1 of the development as "Helen Lavender Lane."

The developer is proposing to name a lane in Hearthstone at Cambrian Stage 1 after Ms. Helen Lavender, whose name was added to the Commemorative Names Registry on July 23, 2019. Ms. Lavender was a former County Councillor, a prominent community leader within the County, and dedicated herself to public service and community activities. Ms. Lavender was a Girl Guide leader, teacher, pilot, bus driver and writer. She was a volunteer for many years at Strathcona Care Centre, A Safe Place and the Strathcona County Library, and she also helped to design and operate the Bookmobile. Ms. Lavender was a recipient of several awards including the Pride of Strathcona Award, the Muriel Abdurahman Volunteer Award, the Rotary Integrity Award and an award for Women's Day.

The purpose of naming this lane is to allow for addressing of the proposed townhouse lots fronting onto Helen Lavender Park.
