To report to Council on the current and forecasted demands on the Social Framework Community Grants program.

Our Prioritized Strategic Goals

Goal 1 - Build strong communities to support the diverse needs of residents

Report

- At the February 1, 2022 Council meeting, Council passed a motion that Administration conduct an analysis of current and forecasted demands on the Social Framework Community Grants program and report to Council by the end of Q2.
- Administration's analysis has demonstrated that forecasted demands on the grants program will exceed available funds for the foreseeable future.
- Should Council choose, administration can be tasked to provide an option for increased funding to be considered by Council during budget deliberations.
