

Annual Update

Strathcona County Emergency Management Agency

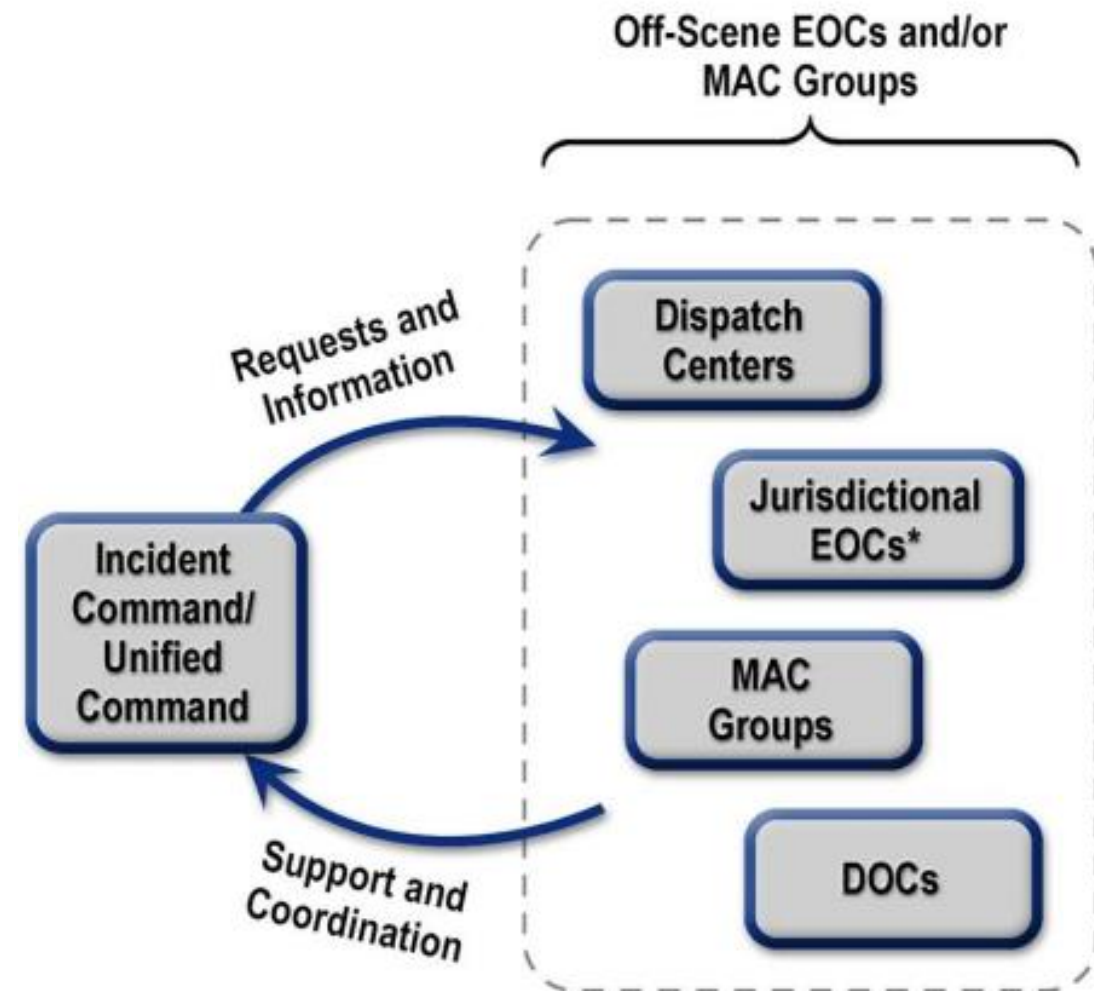

Council
November 29, 2022

Agenda

- 2022 Activations & Training
- Legislation
 - Emergency Management Act
 - Alberta Incident Management System (AIMS)
 - Emergency Management Bylaw
 - Local Emergency Management Regulation (LEMR)
- Pandemic Response After Action Review
- Plans for 2023
- Municipal Emergency Plan update & approval

2022 Activations

- Pandemic
 - Level 2 activation
 - Level 1 since February 23rd
- Major Community Events
 - Canada Day & NYE
 - CP Holiday Train
- Hazard Season
 - MAC Group
- Extreme Temperature Plan
 - Level 1 activation

2022 Training

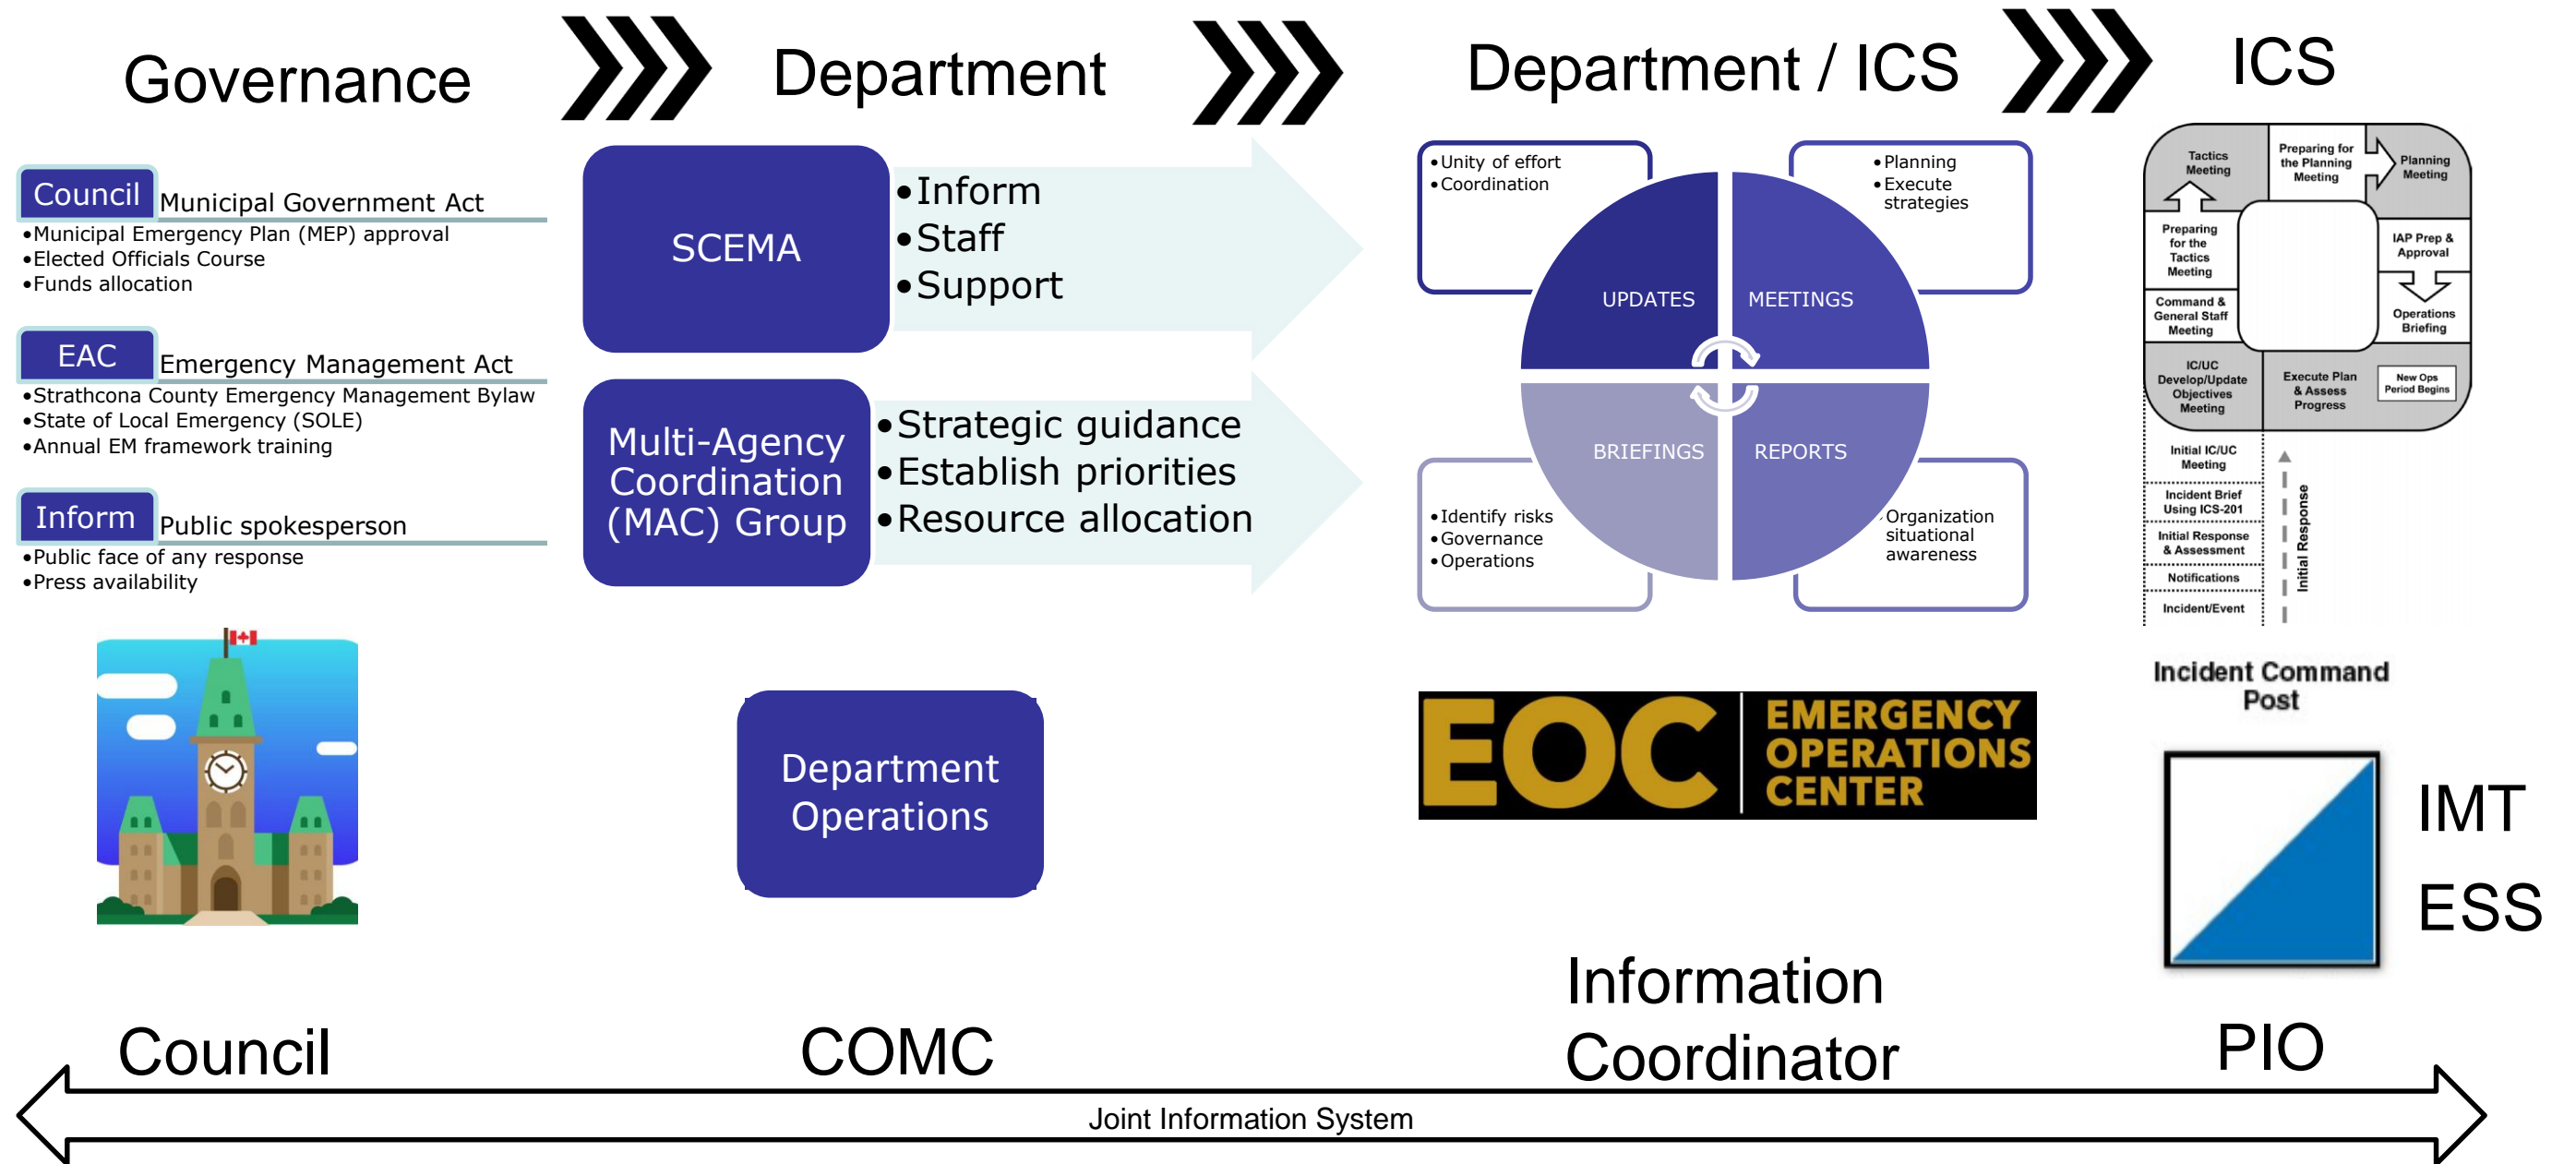

- Emergency Advisory Committee (EAC)
 - Municipal Elected Officials Course
 - EAC Training
- Corporate Communications
 - Functional exercise
- Incident Management Teams
 - Planning P (AEMA)
- Emergency Social Services
 - Table-top exercise
- Incident Command Systems Training

Legislation

- Municipal Government Act
 - Amended in 2022: Public mandatory masking powers moved to the Health Act
- Emergency Management Act
 - Disaster Recovery Program
 - Cost-sharing
 - Home-owner funding limits
 - Eligible disasters
 - 2022 Draft Alberta Incident Management System (AIMS)

Emergency Management Framework

Legislation

- Emergency Management Bylaw
 - No changes from SCEMA recommended
- Local Emergency Management Regulation Review
 - Completed November 24th
 - AEMA findings

SCEMA 2023

- Training – Transportation incident
- Planned activations
 - Hazard Season - MAC Group
 - Major Community Events – EOC Level 2
- Emergency Management Framework
 - Emergency Operations Center
 - ICS-like structure (Department specific positions)
 - Digitalization
 - Incident Management Teams consolidation
 - Business Continuity Plans updates

Municipal Emergency Plan (MEP)

- 2022 updates
 - Activation process
 - MAC Group: roles & responsibilities
 - EOC activation levels
 - Specific Plans:
 - Updated: Extreme Temperature Plan
 - Updated: Pandemic Response Plan
 - New: Hazard Season Plan
 - New: Major Community Event Plan

Recommendation

- THAT as required by the Alberta Emergency Management Act that the Municipal Emergency Plan be approved by Council

Questions