Library as Legal Entity

Public libraries are established and operated as not-for-profit legal corporations under the Alberta Libraries Act and Regulations.

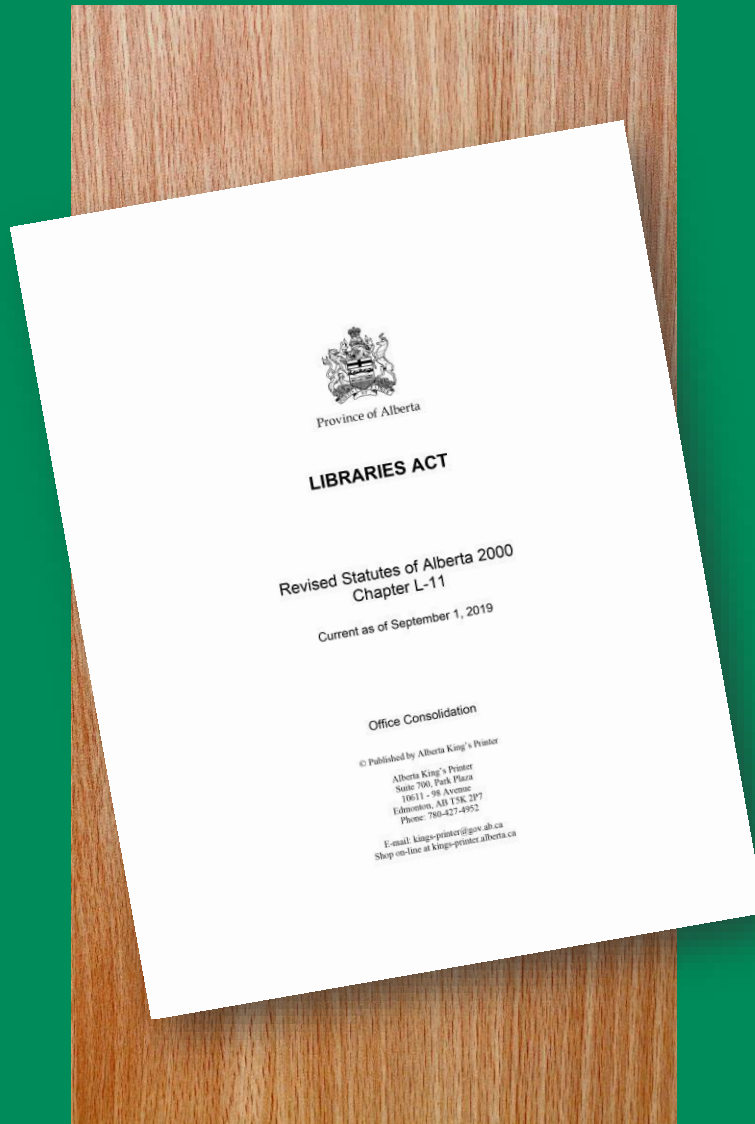

Libraries must run at arm's length from municipalities and are governed by a Library Board of between 5-10 community members that are appointed by the municipality.

Strathcona County Library

- requested by community petition
- established by a 1974 bylaw
- opened February 1977

Library Board

- 10 community members
- Includes one Councillor
- all appointed by Council

Library Board & County Council

Library Boards are governance boards, fully responsible for ensuring that their libraries provide comprehensive and efficient services.

- Council approves the library's budget estimate
- Council receives the library's audited financial statements and annual report
- Council has a say in the library's choice of financial auditors

The Library Board has full control and management of Strathcona County Library and its budget.

The Library Board presents to Council its budget estimate, audited financial statements and annual report.

Library as County Partner

The Library and County are partners in providing shared and essential services from the Strathcona County Community Centre.

The Library collaborates with many County Departments, but works most closely with those in the Community Services Division.

Together, we also provide community service, build social capital, and increase community wellbeing.

The library is a key partner in the County's Social Framework.

Library and Municipal Affairs

Alberta public libraries report to the Public Library Services Branch (PLSB) of Alberta Municipal Affairs.

Libraries must develop a Plan of Service detailing how they will respond to community needs and file a copy with PLSB.

Libraries are required to assess community needs every three to five years, to ensure they continue to offer relevant services.

Our library completed a Community Needs Assessment in the fall of 2020.

Shared Library & County Priority Areas

Goal 1

Build strong communities to support the diverse needs of residents

A strong community is comprised of community members, who support the fundamental needs of individuals and families, while promoting livable and inclusive neighbourhoods. Strathcona County considers important both individual and community health and well-being, and how we relate to and care for one another. In short, it's about fostering a positive lifestyle for our residents, by partnering with other governments and community agencies to ease economic and social disparities. We strengthen the self-sustaining capacity of individuals, families and communities by promoting healthy and active lifestyles. We continue to ensure the fundamental needs of our community (e.g. affordable housing and a sense of belonging) are met.
