103	BIDZINSKI Victor	Uber in Strathcona County	Information	03/08/2016	03/18/2016	LLS		Please provide information regarding our Taxi Cab Bylaw and if Uber is required to obtain a permit to operate in Strathcona County	04/12/2016	The ride for hire industry is currently in significant transition and Administration is monitoring the ongoing developments. Bylaw 20-2013, Strathcona County's bylaw to regulate the safety of taxis, was drafted without consideration of significant technological advances in the ride for hire industry, including the establishment of transportation network companies such as Uber. Currently, the permits under Strathcona County's bylaw do not address the ride sharing industry. The definitions in the bylaw create a lack of clarity for enforcement purposes, and any enforcement against Uber or other similar ride sharing operations (i.e. enforcement against Uber/ride sharing drivers) for failure to obtain a permit could be subject to a court challenge. However, Uber and other transportation network companies are required to meet provincial legislative requirements which include the requirement of a Class 4 Driver Licence or better and appropriate commercial vehicle insurance. Strathcona County RCMP and Enforcement Services will continue to enforce these requirements.	Complete
